

INDONESIAN HERITAGE SOCIETY (IHS)

2019 Calendar Photography Competition

The theme of the IHS 2019 Calendar Photography Competition is: “Indonesian Markets”.

This theme offers you broad scope of markets in this intriguing country. Across Indonesia, there are food, flower, meat, floating markets, and even bull markets and so many more!

The only qualification you need to enter the competition is to be an IHS member. No special photography skills are required.

Rules for entries:

- ☑☑ Up to 6 different photos per person may be submitted
- ☑☑ Entrants must be members of the Indonesian Heritage Society
- ☑☑ Photos must be in landscape format
- ☑☑ Photos must be taken in Indonesia
- ☑☑ Photos must be in high resolution
- ☑☑ Printed Size: 20cm (height) x 30cm (length), glossy or matte
- ☑☑ A completed Entry Form and flashdrive (USB) or CD containing your photo entries, in high resolution format, are to be submitted to the library with your photos by the due date, 26th January 2018.

Please Note:

- All photos should be accompanied by captions
- If your photos are selected by the judges for inclusion in the IHS 2019 Calendar, you will be asked to have the chosen photograph/s enlarged to 40cm (height) x 60cm (length). The winning photographs will be framed by IHS, will be on display during the IHS Photography Exhibition and will be for sale to the public.
- If enlarged photographic prints are sold during the exhibition, the photographer will receive 70% of the sale price and IHS will receive 30%. Photographers can set their own prices for the photographs, or can request in writing to have their photographs marked “Not For Sale”.
- Photos will be framed by IHS, and will be on display during the IHS Calendar Photo Exhibition. They will then be eligible for votes in the People’s Choice Award.
- These photos will also be for sale at a set price, with the proceeds going solely to IHS. Participants can request in writing to have these photos marked “Not For Sale”.

On the opening night of the IHS Photography Exhibition, there will be a popular vote for favorite photo.

On the IHS Facebook page there will be another vote for favorite photo!

After the one week IHS exhibition in the Senayan Sentral 1 lobby (24th February – 3 March, 2018) , IHS will display the competition photos, with their captions, in the IHS library. A random selection of the competition photos will be displayed over the following 2-3 months.
